Manry County Fair. FIFTH DAY-HARNESS STOCK. Now, every one knows what we mean

when we speak of the day on which Harness stock is to be exhibited at the Maury county Fair, as we have in times gone by had rings that could not be beaten, and if we should venture to say, that the show will be twice as large this year as any previous year, we think it would not be saying too much. And then the day and the Fair wind up by the fastest trotting horse, more or golding, and several entries are spoken of. Taking all things together, we feel confident that our Fair will prove an entire success and one we shall feel proud of,

Maury County Sunday School Union Censcutton. The leading Sabbath School teachers of this county propose to have a Convention of all the Sabbath Schools in Maury county on the 27th of October, 1871, at Columbia, which is the most central point. We believe this move will be productive of great good. It will create a more brotherly feeling between the Subbath Schools of different denommations, and make them more fully imbued with the true value of Sabbath Schools Another good result will be the establishment of new Sabbath Schools, until every child in the county can attend regularly some school. At present there are many neighborhoods where there are no Sabbath Schools, The united efforts of all the schools would not fail to get up Sabbath Schools at such places. Of course the Convention will not trouble itself about any question involving doctrine, as taught by the different denominations. The business management of Sabbath Schools, their prosperity and growth, will be the principal subjects of discussion and action. Let every Sabbath School in the county send two of its ablest and most zealous members as delegates to the convention. The delegates will be received hospitably by the citizens of Columbia Fair Grounds.

The Mt. Pleasant Turnpike has been greatly improved, and the road to the Fair Ground is in splendid condition; We learn that a vast number of vehicles will be on hand during the Fair, to run between Columbia and the Grounds. We venture to say to the worthy President and Directors, that one or mor of horses shown will be greatly in excess of those shown last year, owing to the liberality of the Society in not charging any entrance tee. The stables might be built in a week.

Capt. P. C. BETHEL, one of the direct tors of the Maury County Agricultural, Mechanical, Horticultural and Live Stock Society, has been engaged for sevcral weeks past in preparing the Fair Grounds for the coming Fair. He is having the Floral Hall aired, renovated and new sawdust put down on the floor.

Nice gravel walks have been laid between the gate and the amphitheatre, and from the Promenade to the Floral Hail, for the ladies. If it should happen to rain during the Fair, these gravel walks will prove very convenient for the ladies. The roof of the Promenade is very much warped, and needs, and will probably remove the grass (A good plowing The roof of the Promenade is very much warped, and needs, and will probably receive, repairing. again be laid on the Promenade, to prevent noise being made by promenaders. Lust Saturday Capt. BETHEL was very much in favor of creeting a large number of stalls for exhibitors' horses, just outside the fence. We trust this has or will be done, as a very large number of horses will doubtless be at the Fair, The Marshall County Fair was amply provided for in this respect, and surely we are able to be as liberalas our neigh-

Suits for breach of marriage promise are not known in France, because the laws make no provision for them. On that account, what we call engagements are not made there. When a man wishes to marry a woman, he makes his proposal in the proper quarter, and, if accepted, the betrothal and marriage usually follow at once. The engagement basiness is a social nuisance, and this French fashiou, if no other, might be profitably introduced here.

The saucer will remain full of water so long as there is enough in the fountain. The hole must be so near the edge that so long as there is plenty of water in the saucer it will be covered. When the water is low, a few bubbles of air will rush in, and the water will flow out until the hole is covered again.
